DETAILED ACTION

Claims 4-11 remain withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the disclosed invention is inoperative and therefore lacks utility.

See prior Office action. However, the portion of the rejection that pertains to the A, B and C requirements is no longer maintained, in light of the amendment.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

Art Unit: 1791

See prior Office action. However, the portion of the rejection that pertains to the A, B and C requirements is no longer maintained, in light of the amendment.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.

Art Unit: 1791

4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 1 and 13 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Topchiashvili 6010983 in view of Wei 5518660.

See prior Office actions.

Claim 1 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Topchiashvili 6010983 and Takagi 4996177.

See prior Office actions.

Claims 1 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Morita 4937214.

See prior Office actions.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 17 September 2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

It is argued that applicant's prior admission do not pertain because Applicant's ceramics are different from the Topchiaschvili ceramics. This is not persuasive since there is no evidence or rationale to support this. Moreover, the rejection is not based on Topchiaschvili ceramics, rather the rejections are based on applying the Topchiaschvili to the ceramics of the secondary references.

Applicant also argues that the attachments to the amendment of 28 July 2006 support applicant's position which Examiner has not disputed. Examiner is confused. The office record reflects that there is at most one attachment – an affidavit but this was fully considered (see 10/20/2006 Office action, bottom of page 6).

Applicant also urges Examiner to take into account "the fact" that orientation of "the ceramics" has been achieved. Examiner has taken into account that orientation of ceramics has been achieved – for example in the prior art. However when weighing all of the evidence – including applicant's admission that it does not work with certain ceramics, Examiner has made the findings as reflected in the rejections.

As to the arguments regarding that when A, B or C is met, there is no adjusting step: examiner is unpersuaded. Examiner weighs the current argument versus the previous admission that adjustment is necessary (1st page of 20 August 2006). The 20 August 2006 admission controls outweighs the new argument. The office treats the 20

August 2006 as fact/evidence, whereas the new admission is treated as argument/speculation – evidence is needed to support it. Fact/evidence generally always outweighs argument.

From MPEP 2145 Consideration of Applicant's Rebuttal Arguments

I. ARGUMENT DOES NOT REPLACE EVIDENCE WHERE EVIDENCE IS NECESSARY

Attorney argument is not evidence unless it is an admission, in which case, an examiner may use the admission in making a rejection. See MPEP § 2129 and § 2144.03 for a discussion of admissions as prior art.

The arguments of counsel cannot take the place of evidence in the record. In re Schulze, 346 F.2d 600, 602, 145 USPQ 716, 718 (CCPA 1965); In re Geisler, 116 F.3d 1465, 43 USPQ2d 1362 (Fed. Cir. 1997) ("An assertion of what seems to follow from common experience is just attorney argument and not the kind of factual evidence that is required to rebut a prima facie case of obviousness."). See MPEP § 716:01(c) for examples of attorney statements which are not evidence and which must be supported by an appropriate affidavit or declaration.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
